ANOTHER BUILDING FOR OAK STREET

THE DRS. LINK WILL BUILD TWO STORY BUSINESS HOUSE ON LOTS NEAR CITY HALL.

It is announced the Drs. Link will close a contract soon for a two story business house at the corner of North Sycamore and Oak streets, and that it will be modern in every sense of the word.

Palestine seems to be entering upon a building boom. Already there are under construction and contracted for buildings that represent an expenditure of $125,000. This includes the new electric light building, the new ice factory, the Fore wholesale house, the Brown & Dick building on Oak, work on which has already begun; the new telephone building, and various other improvements.

And the prospects are fine for a new railroad, and perhaps shops, general offices, etc., of this new road. They can be had if the proper efforts are put forth.

Entertained.

Mrs. John Kolstad entertained on Thursday afternoon three clubs—the "Bachelor Maids," "Qui Vives" and "Silent Sixteen"—in honor of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Page. Progressive high five was the entertainment of the afternoon. There were eleven tables, and much merry-making was enjoyed throughout the afternoon. After many enjoyable games, Mrs. Lehman was

CHILDREN WILL BE WELL PROVIDED FOR

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS AND THE
RATHBONE SISTERS WILL PRO-VIDE CHRISTMAS TREAT.

Monday night a committee of Knights will report to the local lodge plans for a great Christmas treat for the children of Palestine, and especially for the orphaned children of deceased Knights, and other deserving poor of the city. A committee was appointed to meet a committee of the Rathbone Sisters, and outline a plan for the work. This committee is prepared to report back to the lodge. Every member is asked to be present to hear this report.

This is a most laudable undertaking and one in which every man, woman and child, able to do so, should help. Let every child in Palestine receive a call from Old Santa in Palestine Christmas.

No Matinee.

The Columbia Opera Company, which was booked for a matinee this afternoon, missed connection and did not get here in time to fill the afternoon engagement. The company came in on a freight train this afternoon, and will appear at the opera house tonight. The Columbia is pronounced one of the best small companies that has ever visited Palestine. The company was here recently and delighted an audience.

Died Yesterday.

Mr. J. Fred Maffitt died at the home of his brother, Mr. C. S. Maffitt, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The remains were interred in the East Hill cemetery this afternoon at 3.

The young man was twenty-one years of age. The family and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

The Dixie Club.

Monday afternoon the Dixie Club held its third meeting of this season with Miss Chambers. The leader for the afternoon was Mrs. Royall Smith, who made the third act of King John most interesting. To our regular course we have, at our district president's suggestion, added child study. A splendid paper on Mother's Clubs was read by Mrs. W. B. Robinson, and a Kindergarten Story, with explanations, given by Miss Myers.

The program for our next meeting, which will be November 20th, with Miss Myers as hostess, will be as follows:

Roll Call—the Club.
Five Minute Essays on Arthur, written in class—the Club.
The French Side of the Question—Miss Stevens.
"Faulconbridge"—Miss Watkins.
The Three Types of Motherhood—Miss Myers.
Text Study.
Leader—Mrs. C. Roe Hall.
Press Representative.

Against Bailey.

In the debate by the Success Club last night, in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, on the question: "Resolved, That Senator Bailey's public conduct deserves no condemnation," the negatives won the decision. Mr. F. W. Pell led the debate for the negative and Mr. H. I. Myers the affirmative.

Half Million Loss.

declared the lucky winner of the first prize, which was hand-painted sugar and cream bowls. The ladies cut for the consolation prize, and Miss Brian won the prize, a hand-painted bon bon box. A delicious lunch was served, consisting of salad, creamed oysters in timbals, toasted crackers, olive sandwiches and coffee. The rooms were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and roses. The parlor was decorated with pink roses and yellow chrysanthemums, the back parlor in pink. On the table was an exquisite cut glass bowl of pink roses, which was especially admired by the guests. The dining room color was red, and the hall was banked in ferns and roses. During the afternoon Miss May Gregg rendered a song, and others contributed music. After a most enjoyable afternoon the guests departed for their homes. Mrs. Kolstad proved herself a most charming hostess.

A Coming Reception.

FOR THANKSGIVING DAY

No good clothes are too good. Get the best your money can buy, but don't be needlessly extravagant, for you can be measured and fitted with garments in which you will feel justly proud at a justly moderate cost. We dress you well and we dress you swell, for we have the knack of giving to our garments the stamp of gentility. 'Phone 20.
